

Selecting the Order of an ARCH Model

Anthony W. Hughes

Maxwell L. King

Kwek Kian Teng

Due to the fact that the parameters of an ARCH process must be non-negative, inference on ARCH parameters can be improved by using inequality constrained estimation. In this paper, we extend this principle to the problem of ARCH lag order selection.

Keywords: inequality constrained maximum likelihood; one-sided AIC; model selection.

Correspondence:

Department of Economics,
University of Adelaide,
Adelaide, SA, 5005, Australia
tony.hughes@adelaide.edu.au